System Integrator AND Automation joins Rockwell Automation's new Recognised System Integrator Programme

Rockwell Automation® has appointed AND Automation Limited as the first Recognised Systems Integrator in EMEA. The new Recognised Systems Integrator Programme (RcSI) gives End Users confidence in choosing a company that has a recognised competence and a strong working relationship with Rockwell Automation. It offers the benefits of extensive experience in the design, implementation, project management and maintenance of industrial control systems.

AND Automation is an RcSI for the following Rockwell Automation technologies:

- Safety Integration
- Intelligent Motor Control
- FactoryTalk Software Suite

AND Automation Ltd was formed in 2002 to supply turnkey automation solutions to End Users. Their in-house capabilities include:

- Consultancy, Hardware & Software Design, Engineer, Manufacture, Installation, Commissioning & Training
- PLC & SCADA Solutions
- MES Solutions

AND Automation continues to expand their competencies and market access by successfully acquiring ISO9001:2008 and UL Certifications. They supply End Users of all sizes covering many vertical markets, including Food, Chemicals, Aggregate, Infrastructure and Water.

In joining the programme Sales Director Tony Brooks said: "We are very excited to become the first RcSI in EMEA and we look forward to continuing our excellent working relationship with Rockwell Automation."

Commenting on their appointment, Rockwell Automation's UK Sales Director, Dominic Molloy said, "We are delighted to be partnering with AND Automation. I believe the combination of products and experience from both companies will offer End Users a world class, differentiated solution – whatever the size or focus of the project."

The Rockwell Automation Recognised Systems Integrator Programme is part of Rockwell Automation's Partner Network which includes business enterprise, sales & solutions and product and technology partners.
